

REMINDER – RESTRICTIONS ON USE OF DONATIONS

Thank you for your order.

Please review the following terms agreed to by your nonprofit in our Master Donation Acceptance Agreement.

- Your organization may use donated goods only as direct charitable donations to people in need.
- Your organization must not sell, trade, barter, or otherwise transfer any donated goods in exchange for money, property, or services. Prohibited transfers include listing the donated goods for sale or trade on websites, in stores, at flea markets, or in any similar manner.
- Your organization must not use donated goods for raffles, auctions, or any fundraising activity.
- Your organization must not accept anything of value (including voluntary donations) in exchange for the donated goods.
- Your organization must not give any donated goods to its volunteers, officers, directors, employees, or contractors for personal use.
- Your organization must not return any donated goods to the manufacturer or to any retail store.
- Your organization must not give donations to another nonprofit organization or other entity.
- Your organization must not redistribute any donated goods to any location outside of the United States (unless Good360 has given written permission in advance).

Also note that donations from retail store programs have the same restrictions and cannot be returned to the store for exchange, refund or credit.

If you have any questions concerning these requirements, please contact us at security@good360.org.

We hope these donations help your nonprofit fulfill its mission in helping your community!
